

HOLY ROSARY

NOTES & QUOTES

Mr. Mullis' Letter

March 5, 2025

There's always an opportunity to start over again. Whether it is after we make a mistake, break our New Year's resolution, fail in our Lenten promises, when we hurt others, or when we do not uphold our end of a deal. These opportunities to start over come with lessons learned. From each mistake we make, promise broken, or failure in life, God calls us to learn from those experiences. He calls us to repentance and renewal. It is one thing to repent our sins, but if we do not "renew" ourselves, if we do not change the behavior that caused us to sin, we are not following God's command to renew ourselves. Lent is a time to reflect on our lives and examine where we have failed God; where we have chosen to veer from the path He has created for us. Then, through repentance AND renewal, we can get back on the path God has planned for us.

Speaking of starting over again, we have just gone live with a new Holy Rosary Catholic School website. Be sure to visit it and see the new layout, holyroarymemphis.org. While visiting the site, if you experience any dead links or other issues please let us know. We reviewed it many times but there is always a chance something isn't working properly. You may email David Hall, if you experience any issues, David.hall@holyroarymemphis.org.

Next week is Spring Break. There will not be school next week. Please do not drop off your children. They will not like it and Mr. O'Kelly will have to put them to work, which they will also not like. But seriously, I hope you all enjoy your break and, if you are traveling, please do so safely. We look forward to seeing everyone back on March 17. On our return to school, students should transition to the warm weather uniform. Don't forget the Used Uniform sale is tomorrow after school. You can pick up any needed items to get you through the rest of the school year (or buy big for next year).

Have a great week,

Darren Mullis
